Dear Parents and Carers,

Happy half term! We really wish you a restful break and that students are safe, well and enjoy some autumnal fun.

This week has been all about Praise, with Praise points for our school value of Pride being doubled. Students were rewarded with a chance to win a laptop, earbuds or Amazon vouchers. Students in Year 7 and 8 also attended a reward trip to the Tower of London. All year groups participated with interform.

The careers event was a great afternoon with lots of really useful conversations between our young people and colleges. Please, if you have a student in Year 11, can you check in with them about their choices.

For Year 11 students half term will be a time of revision and resting, please see below for our half term revision plan. All students are expected to come in if they have a session with the bonus of pizza to follow or at the start of sessions.

Please see information on free school meals and hardship funds

Thanks for your support this half term. Have a great half term.

UPDATE ON THE MAT

Thank you so much to our parents who attended the MAT session on Wednesday. If you were not able to make the session but would wish to discuss any queries in person, please email us for an appointment time matquestions@woodsidehighschool.co.uk

One of our parents asked a great question, "what will this mean for a child who is at the school". The answer is, day to day this wouldn't make much of a difference. However, over time students would certainly benefit from the teacher development, accountability for the senior team and amazing opportunities from model UN, STEM academy, trips abroad and Academic lectures.

I know you want the best for your children and I would like to reassure you that the movement to a MAT will allow us fantastic opportunities to provide this.

INTERFORM

Students from all year groups have been participating in interform competitions this week. Boys participated in handball whilst girls took part in trampolining.

TRIP TO CHARLES DICKEN MUSEUM

On Thursday 20th October, 28 Year 11 students travelled to Russell Square with Ms Murray, Mr Boniface and Ms Elliott to partake in a workshop at the Charles Dickens Museum to support their current reading of A Christmas Carol. They learned about the realities of daily life in the Victorian era, including a bit too much information about commodes and cesspits!

The visit was highly informative and behaviour on the trip was exceptional. Students were engaged and polite, with museum staff commenting on how impressed they were. We also had a celebrity sighting, bumping into Miriam Margolyes outside of the museum (although she was more easily recognised by staff than students)!

MESSAGES FROM OUR HOUSE AND SPORTS CAPTAINS

My name is Russhenna and I am House Captain of Ash.

My name is Otis, I am the Sports Captain of Ash.

We are aiming for our house to embody hard work and resilience. We will be leading the way to ensure students from our house demonstrate every Woodside value daily both in school and out of school.

My name is Clara and I am the House Captain of Birch.

My name is Jaylan and I'm Sports Captain of Birch.

In our house we would like our students to show confidence, perseverance and resilience. The events we are looking forward to are the interform tournaments in particular football.

Hi, I am Nour, House Captain of Cedar. I believe Cedar will be one of the best groups because we will demonstrate confidence, teamwork and most importantly the three

Woodside Values: PRIDE, KINDNESS and RESPECT. We have many house events coming up which I'm sure all students will be excited for. I am looking forward to the maths challenge as it's a personal favourite subject of mine

Hello, I'm Hadijah, Sports Captain of Cedar. I know that my group will be the best of the best. They will have respect amongst their peers, they will work hard and try their best no matter what. They will have confidence and pride. I'm looking forward to the interform football and seeing my Cedar peers participating and showing off their skills. Don't worry, if you don't know how to play well, it doesn't matter, I care about you having fun, taking part. My objective for our house is good energy and confidence.

My name is Kaya and I'm the sports captain of Willow house.

My name is Florin and I'm the House captain of Willow house.

We would like for our house to embody values such as responsibility, hard work and confidence. Some of the sports events we are looking forward to as a House include inter-form, basketball competitions.
